ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

Environmental Growth in US (by region)
Population growth is only one measure of environmental stress. According to the 2007 Census, the Western and Southern Regions of the United States had double-digit population growth, while the Northeast and the Midwest grew by less than 10 percent. The chart captures the geographic distribution of population growth in the United States. Environmental stressors from growth in the West grow to

In areas where these agreements have been put in place and have been successfully monitored, the impact to the habitat has been minimal and even beneficial. Species have adapted and in some cases flourished as a result of the conscientious and measured approach to the management of their habitat.

Companies in almost every industry have found that environmental laws and policies more often than not have application to their daily operations. As environmental issues and climate change discussions top the national agenda, more businesses will be faced with difficult and potentially

Gallagher & Quentin has organized a practice group that is oriented towards proactive environmental law, focusing on meaningful solutions in the face of increased regulations. We have a sensible approach to environmental law, using proactive measures to prevent problems from occurring. SPECIAL DISTRICT RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION NO. 2013 -- 1

A resolution expressing the property taxation policy of the Board of Fire District # 8 District with respect to financing the 2014 annual budget for Fire District # 8 , McPherson County , Kansas.

Whereas, K.S.A. 79-2925b provides that a resolution be adopted if property taxes levied to finance the 2014 Fire District # 8 district budget exceed the amount levied to finance the 2013 Fire District # 8 except with regard to revenue produced and attributable to the taxation of 1) new improvements to real property; 2) increased personal property valuation, other than increased valuation of oil and gas leaseholds and mobile homes; and 3) property which has changed in use during the past year, or with regard to revenue produced for the purpose of repaying the principal of and interest upon bonded indebtedness, temporary notes, or no-fund warrants; and

Whereas, budgeting, taxing and service level decisions for all district services are the responsibility of the district board; and

Whereas, Fire District # 8 provides essential services to district residents; and

Whereas, the cost of provision of these services continues to increase.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of the Fire District # 8 that is our desire to notify the public of the possibility of increased property taxes to finance the 2014 Fire District # 8 budget as defined above.

Adopted this 18th day of July, 2013 by the Fire District # 8 District Board, McPherson County, State of Kansas.
